

Self-Advocate Education & Training Group

WHAT WE DO

- Care Design NY Self-Advocate Education and Training Group is for individuals who receive Care Management through Care Design NY.
- Individuals will meet with other self-advocates to discuss and learn about the advocacy work that the Individual and Family Advisory Board has been working on.
- Discuss topic areas that have been reviewed with the Individual and Family Advisory Board and begin to participate in meetings.
- The group will cover topics including but not limited to: COVID-19, proposed budget cuts, testing for staff, and self-advocacy skills.
- Potential professional development opportunities may be available in the future.

WHEN: Wednesday, June 30

TIME: 5:00 pm - 6:30 pm
